

LEMNOS PHILEMA

GASTRONOMY & WINE FESTIVAL

LEMNOS PHILEMA Gastronomy and Wine Festival

July 27 – 29 2018

APOTHIKI
Aigaiou 13, Myrina 81400
Lemnos, Greece

The cultural space “Apothiki” in collaboration with Taste Lemnos organize for the second year the Gastronomy and Wine Festival, Lemnos Philema.

“Philema” in Greek means treating others with food or wine. To us, Lemnos Philema means hospitality, quality and celebration. We aim at treating our visitors to the quality of Lemnian produce, celebrate the gastronomy and wine of Lemnos, and to make the island a culinary destination.

At Lemnos Philema, Lemnian producers present their local products such as traditional pasta, cheese, sweets, salted seafood, wine, preserved meats, legumes, flour, herbs, olive oil, and more, as visitors have the opportunity to taste them and get to know the people who produce them. Special guests, chef Alexander Papandreou and chef Andreas Lagos, will cook for the public at the Live Cooking Session using products from the Lemnian land, while parallel events will enrich the 2018 festival for a wider gastronomic experience.

Visit us at Lemnos Philema 2018 for a unique culinary experience!

A few words about Lemnos Philema:

The mission of Lemnos Philema is to showcase local Lemnian gastronomy through an interactive and authentic manner, through hospitality and celebration, and to make the island a gastronomic destination.

The first Lemnos Philema took place on August 4th and 5th 2017. Twenty producers participated, representing the whole range of traditional products produced in Lemnos (more than 80 different products), while more than 600 unique visitors came to the first Lemnos Philema, from all over Greece and abroad. On the second day of the event, chef Alexandros Papandreou presented new ways to use local products at the Live Cooking Session.

Lemnos Philema 2018 has the support of the North Aegean Region, AMKE “Lemnos Touristiki” and the Commercial Association of Lemnos.

The festival will take place on July 27 – 29 2018.
